

Please do not allow use of power lines for digital communications.
It is neary imposible to get our local power company to do anything about the existing interference, so I know they would not do anything to eliminate any additional problems. on a hot day it is just about impossible to use the amateur HF bands. Thanks.